

Studio Llwyndrain Courses & Workshops

Nature is not only all that is visible to the eye, it also includes the inner pictures of the soul. Edvard Munch

Printmaking courses

We offer tuition in mono printing and intaglio/collograph printing, using the very best water washable inks available. The press we have is capable of producing prints up to A3 in size. We do NOT offer etching courses at the moment.

The 3 day course will be studio based. The first day will explore mono printing, the second screen printing and the third will be collography. You will be shown a variety of examples of each technique and then its up to you! No previous experience of any of these techniques required !

The 5 day course will expand the above, allowing the artist to devote more time to any of the techniques above.

Materials you will need to bring for this course.

All printing equipment is supplied for this course. You should bring a sketch book and pencil and a digital camera if you have one.

Courses in any one of the printing techniques described can be arranged. Contact us with your request.

Prices

Three days     £175 per person non-residential
Five days       £275 per person non-residential

Maximum six people on each course
10% discount for groups of five or six
Please ask for rates if you wish to book our self-catering cottage for your stay

Dates

Please contact us to discuss your requirements

Booking information

To make a booking please contact us. We aim to return all messages left on our answer phone within four hours, so please leave contact details if we don't answer.

Please note the following important information -

All courses are only available to students aged 16 and over. For the benefit of our students, we regret that the studio is not open for 'drop in' visits. We welcome visitors by prior arrangement. All courses MUST be booked, and paid for in advance.

