Taster Day

Always wanted to be able to paint, draw or make prints, but not had the confidence to have a go?

Want to try something different during your holiday in this beautiful area?

Looking for an indoor activity that will inspire you?

Want to learn new ways to look and think creatively?

Why not try our art taster day?

Come along and enjoy some thought provoking art stimulation! You can involve yourself in drawing, painting, collage and printmaking. All materials (and lunch) are provided, and you will go away with at least three finished works of art at the end of your session. Add more days to build on your new skills and confidence. Days can be arranged at short notice.
